Dear Mr. Neuman

Mr. William H. Dilliston of Paterson, New Jersey was a visitor at my home this evening.

He informed me that you also are an avid collector of obsolete bank bills.

I am forming a collection of uncut sheets and Florida notes.
I am wondering if you have any duplicates to sell. Or perhaps you may be looking for material and we may be able to exchange to our mutual benefit.

if you are interested, I would appreciate hearing from you.

Sincerely

J & J Fenne

Dear Mr. Jenne:

It was nice of Bill Dillisten to mention my name.

I continually add to my paper money collection and if you have any duplicates to exchange I will be more than glad to try to find something that falls into your line. I do not sell my material. Let me know what you have and if I do not have it I will be very pleased to work with you.

Cordially,

Dear Mr. Jenne:

I enjoyed meeting you at the convention and was very glad to see one so full of enthusiasm as you are.

You know that I appreciated your donation to A.N.S. and they wrote me that they did not have the Nazi counterfeits. I am sure that they wrote you a nice letter of thanks.

The problem has now arisen that I would like to have a pair of the counterfeits, not so much because of the numismatic interest but because they were made by those in concentration camps. Since as a matter of principle I do not buy counterfeits of any nature because of my feeling that they should not be sold, I do not know what to suggest to you. I might suggest that you could give a pair to the Eric P. Newman Numismatic Education Society (tax deductible gifts) which is the non-profit organization which I am using for educational work in numismatics. Among other things I am working on the establishment of a museum in St. Louis and your notes would end up on exhibit there. How about it.

The woman on the scrip notes is not Mrs. Lincoln. It so happens I do not have the two you ~~xxxx~~ let me take but I have two other denominations which I believe have other pictures of the issuers family. I never like to discuss value of pieces so I just offer a trade. I enclose photocopies of a group of notes and tell me what you think is fair in exchange for the two I have on hand.

Kindest personal regards,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Mr Newman

I appreciate your letter of Sept 2nd. I have received a formal acknowledgement from the CNS of the receipt of the two English Notes.

So far the CNS and the CNS have copies. However before distributing any more of the notes, I would like to get more data on them. I will keep you in mind however if and when I do anything further.

As to the Lincoln and Mrs Lincoln? notes then too I have not had an opportunity to finish my research. I can't get excited over any of the notes you send photo copies.
I have them in more or less quantity. I stock about 8000 notes, all told so when I get items
I am not familiar with they have to be fairly good.

— We Buy... What Have You? —

if the lady turns out to be Mrs Linder
I had planned on asking $25⁰⁰ per pair - if not
I would have to reconsider.

Why not just send them back and when I complete my study, I can let you know.

I have been rather swamped with other business matters so have had to neglect paper.

Plans are progressing for our Fun Convention in January. I do hope you can attend.
I am sure you would enjoy a visit at the Beauville. John Ford is planning a lecture on Counterfeits, I believe.

We are also going to have an A N A benefit auction for the building fund.
and a breakfast for the Paper Money Group.
Besides Miami Beach has lots to offer in January.

Sincerely
Herb Jenne

Dear Mr. Jenne:

I am returning the two notes which I borrowed from you and look forward to seeing your stock of notes some day as you apparently have an enormous quantity.

I am also returning the newspaper article you loaned me.

Please send me a new price on the pair of notes when you are satisfied it is not Mrs. Lincoln.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Jenne:

Seeing your advertisement in PAPER MONEY inspired me to write you.

I am wondering if you have any more of the German counterfeits of the British paper money. I have a friend who would like to obtain some and I am beginning to be intrigued by the idea of owning something like that myself.

I noticed in your advertisement with respect to sheets that you did not list the Nebraska sheet, being the Western Exchange Fire and Marine Insurance Company, 1857. I have a group of these, being $1, $2, $3 and $5 and will gladly exchange them on a modest basis for anything you have which I might need.

If you have any other sheets than those you advertised, it would be of interest to me to know what they are.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,

ERIC P. NEWMAN NUMISMATIC
